AirShares Elite Adds Second Airplane to Tampa Location – Months Ahead Of Schedule!

January 8, 2005 – (Tampa, FL) – AirShares Elite Inc. announced today that it has added a second Cirrus SR22 to their Tampa, FL operation – three months ahead of schedule! “Pardon the pun, but the Tampa market has just taken off” says Kevin Price, Regional Director. “Sales have out-paced our initial expectations and we quickly realized that we needed to add another airplane in Tampa months sooner than we had planned” he adds. “We were very fortunate Cirrus had an SR22 available (with factory installed air conditioning!) so that we could take delivery just in time for the open house events we have scheduled for January 13th, 14th and 15th” he concludes.

“On November 6, 2005, we announced the opening of our Tampa operation and today we are thrilled to see how well received our product has been” says David Lee, CEO. “When you take the performance, looks, safety and technological advances found in the Cirrus Line of aircraft and couple them with a superior customer, pilot and owner oriented service provider like AirShares Elite, you have a formula for success and that is very apparent in the Tampa area” Lee concludes.

AirShares Elite – Tampa invites you to visit one of the open house events below to see our newest airplane, meet our staff and learn more about The Smart Alternative.
